“ Dean and I played together when we were kids. We were neighbors at one time. I did not see him again after the family moved to Decatur. I have thought many times of the good times we had riding bicycles all over North Athens. My prayers go out to the family. I'm sorry that I didn't find out about his passing until after his funeral.

“ Saw this song today and thought of you Pam.
Lyrics to "Blue Side of Heaven" By Alan Jackson

Don't be sad darlin I love you And I'll take you with my soul's memory I'm just going ahead to tell them about you So they will all know you the way that I do

And I'll meet you dear on the blue side of heaven Where angels sing and days never end And I'll dance with you on the blue side of heaven Where God will bless our love once again

I'll teach them all the songs that we love dear And I'll tell them of our babies at home I'll hug and kiss all of our loved ones Who came before so I'm not alone

*And I'll meet you dear on the blue side of heaven Where angels sing and days never end And I'll dance with you on the blue side of
heaven Where God will bless our love once again*

So let me go and tell me you love me I'm not afraid as darlin I know That someday soon you'll be there with me We'll be together as long as time goes

*And I'll meet you dear on the blue side of heaven Where angels
sing and days never end And I'll dance with you on the blue side of
heaven Where God will bless our love once again*

So don't be sad you know that I love you And I'll see you when it comes to your time We'll walk along some beautiful river Hand in hand on life's other side

“ Lifting the Mitchell family in prayer. As Hayden's grandmother I am grateful for Dean who brought so much joy and fun to my grandson, Hayden's life and loved him like his own. Dean's rest is peaceful now leaving so many great memories for Hayden and the Mitchell family to share as time goes on and through the sadness will be laughter.
