“ Patti was my cousin -- and always a Bonebrake to me! I'm thankful I was able to stay connected to her through social media and retain that family connection that only separated us by a few years, but many miles. Her personality always struck me as genuine, a little quirky at times, but always loving & understanding. I am including a picture that I've held on to for years -- one of the Bonebrake, Jones, and Bever family members at the dinner table inside 1600 Dirr Street in Parsons Kansas. I still have that table & chairs -- I'm looking at them now here in our apartment. Lots of fun family memories in that room, in that house, in that town. And Patti was one of the reasons for those great memories! You truly will be missed, Patti (or Cuz as we called each other!).

“ So sad to here this. Patti was my best friend when we were teenagers and she was my maid of honor at my wedding. I didn't know she lived in north Alabama, I have lived in Scottsboro for 10 year. Sending love to her family, Sandey Ellis “ Kindness poured from this lady. . Amazing laugh and her love of pink made her personality pop. I am proud to have known her and called her friend. She will be missed but I think she's dancing on a cloud and soaring with pink wings.

“ Patti was truly a joyful and upbeat person. She was in constant pain the entire time I worked with her but she always shined. Associates and customers alike loved to go thru Patti's checkout lane. This bubbly lady will be missed. Rest in peace my friend.

“ The wonderful conversations Ms. Patti and I had. They are all memories. You were angry or upset or even just needed someone to talk to you could go to her and she would give you good advice and talk you through it to make you feel better again. A true inspiration and example. She was an example that reminded all of us that no matter what we are going through or what we look like the pain will go away and to press forward everyday in life. This women was an angel straight from heaven that brought smiles to many associates and customers at Walmart. Her light will always shine on!
