“ Praying for your family during this hard time. I have faith that the Lord will get you all through this and your sweet angel is flying high and is no longer suffering. I do not know what it is like to be dealing with what your family feels right now, but I can only imagine. Stay strong and remember that there are a lot of prayers going up for you and always will be.

Dear Lord, please be with this family in their greatest time of need, be with every other little angel that is still struggling and fighting at the Children's Hospital. Give the family peace and give them understanding during this time because only you know why. Raegan was taken too soon and I know we should not question your plan but please keep the family comforted in the days, weeks, months, and years to come. Help them focus on the good times that were spent with Raegan, their precious angel and Lord be with her big sister and always let her know she will have her own guardian angel. In Christ's name I pray, Amen.

Josh, Ciera, Reese, and Marley Carter.
