

Rheba Suzzanne Bailey Dobbins Smith

May 9, 1934 - May 19, 2019

Rheba Suzzanne Bailey Dobbins Smith was born at home in Excelsior Springs, Missouri on May 9, 1934, one of twins. She went to meet her savior on Sunday, May 19, 2019. Her parents were Clell Edward Bailey and Vesta Laura Alexander Bailey. She was preceded in death by her parents, her twin brother Robert Ivan Bailey, a younger brother, Clell Edward Bailey, Jr. and two half-brothers, Edward Almon Trask and Gene McFarland Trask.

Rheba was a home-maker and also worked at several different jobs in her life including pharmacy tech at two different hospitals and as receptionist at PPG Industries. She enjoyed crafts, needle-craft, sewing and art.

She was a born-again Christian in 1954 and was active as a Sunday school teacher, department director, choir member, pianist and organist at various churches in Alabama and Colorado.

She is survived by her husband, Clifford M. Smith; two daughters, Susan Dobbins Brady (Bernard A.) and Rebecca Janan Wilder (Tex); step-son, Clifford Anthony Smith (Lisa); six grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren and many friends and relatives.

A memorial service will be held at 3:00PM on Sunday, May 26, 2019 at Berea Baptist Church.

“ First time Asher and I walked by...he marvelled at the bottle tree...Mrs Smith was saying all the colors while Asher tried to repeat her....we walked by many times and heard her music...she didn't say she was a Christian...we just knew...you will be missed sister....but I'm glad we have another friend cheering us on from the bleachers of heaven as we run our race.
