

Robbie Faye McGraw

May 14, 1950 - May 20, 2025

Robbie Faye McGraw, aged 75, of Athens, passed away peacefully at her residence on Tuesday, May 20th, 2025. Born on May 14th, 1950, in Morgan County, Alabama, Robbie was the daughter of John Alton Philpot and Clara Mae Bell Webster Philpot.

Robbie is survived by her devoted husband, Charles McGraw, who cherished her deeply throughout their years together. She leaves behind her daughter, Brenda Gelber, and her son-in-law, Scott. Robbie was a proud grandmother to Mariah McGraw and Amber Phebus, who is married to Mikel. Her legacy continues through her great-grandchildren: Lexie, Logan, and Ryan Phebus. Additionally, she is remembered fondly by numerous nieces and nephews.

Robbie was preceded in death by her parents, John and Clara Philpot, and her son, Steven Wayne McGraw.

Robbie Faye McGraw's family and friends will hold her memories close, celebrating the warmth, kindness, and love she brought into their lives. Her legacy of love and kindness will be treasured and remembered by all who knew her. Robbie's presence will be deeply missed, but her spirit and the love she shared will live on in the hearts of her family and friends forever.

“ I knew Robbie and Charles from West Limestone High School. She was a good friend and very friendly and nice. I saw them last year for the first time since they graduated , Robbie in 1968 and Charles I believe in 1967. They were a very close couple. I am so sorry to hear of Robbie passing away. Prayers for Charles and their family. Shirley Jacobs Long class of 1969 at West Limestone.

“ Robbie was a good friend of ours. She was a good person to talk too. She and Charles let us go with them on a motorcycle ride up to the smokies one time. We had a very good time then. Our first child was born on her birth date. She knew our struggle on trying to have our first child. She will be truly missed by all her family.
