“ I met Roger and Will back in 2018 on a very warm spring day in their attic office space. Some of my best memories were made there as I began my journey with Yellowhammer Roofing.

Roger always took the time to answer my questions and educate me on everything I know about insurance and roofing. He was always ready to say good morning and greet you with a hug. I am so blessed to have been able to hug him one more time and hear his laugh.

He was like the grandad I never had growing up. He meant so much to me and was truly a mentor. I love Mr. Roger and Mrs. Lucy dearly. I will always remember him smiling and saying, “Good morning, Jessie.”.

“ Every morning having Roger walk in the office and say hello and give a hug is something I will always treasure and will be something that I will miss. Roger was definitely a one of a kind rare gem. He will always be missed.
