“ Ron, You will be missed by so many, your passing will leave a void that can never be filled. I remember many conversations we had at the Cracker Barrel, I was always happy to see you arrive. You were a great man and I take comfort in the thought of your reunion with your wife and other loved ones and know you are happy now in the arms of god. My condolences to your family in their time of loss. My prayers are with you and yours. Much love ,Deborah
