“ My heart goes out to the entire family. Royce was one of those that you'll never see another one like him. He was always laughing, joking around and saying a bunch of mess that would just stay with you and make you laugh years later. He could really sing and play a guitar. I got to share the stage with him a few times and always had fun. Most of all, he was just a really good person and I'm proud to have been able to call him my cousin. Keep your faith and belief in God and we'll be able to see him again one day.

“ *We are music friends and thought that Royce always made sure that whoever was at the microphone would sound better, because of Royce’s complimentary playing. This is just a small indication of his selfless kindness and part of the magic of his music and life. Royce and Cartina made magic together through life and music. We are honored to be friends.
