“ I loved you my whole life and as i set and noticed that you had to take your last breath I loved you even more and now that you are Gods Angel that means that I have a chance to love you for all the days to come because I know that you will be waiting for me to take my last breath so we can walk though Heaven Gates together! Fly high and I will see you soon my wonderful grandmother.

“ Ms Ruby was certainly a jewel. A precious woman who was always so friendly. She was great to us all and treated everyone she met like they eere family.

I remember her nails always being painted. ❤️ I know she will be missed so much. She was very, very loved by so many. Rest peacefully Aunt Ruby. I know you are no longer in pain and you are looking down on everyone with that beautiful smile.

Prayers for Ruby's family and friends.
