“ I am very sorry to learn of Ruth's passing. Several years ago in the course of doing family history research, I contacted her because I am related to Buddy's paternal grandmother, Harriet Ann Campbell Lawson Jones.

"Aunt Hattie" lived with Buddy and Ruth early in their marriage before Hattie's death in 1957. Over the next several years I called Ruth as more questions came up. She always remembered me and talked with me like I was family.

She was always kind, gracious with her time and an excellent storyteller. My sincere condolences to her family and friends on the passing of this wonderful woman.

“ Ruth was a special lady. She, along with Buddy, were members at Tanner Church of Christ. They were both very special to us. Very encouraging. Ruth was so easy to talk to and laugh with. She was a happy person and loved BIG! I was always impressed by her faith and courage to face health problems. She took in all in stride. She loved her family, and she loved us. When she became unable to live alone, and was moved to Limestone Manor, she just accepted it, and didn't complain. She will be missed. But I know she's reunited with Buddy, and will be with her Lord in her new spiritual body. With love and prayers, Linda Thompson
