“ *We were sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. We know that she is now at peace and in a better place. Steve and Jamie we are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. Nothing like loosing a mother. My mother enjoyed having Shirley as a friend and neighbor and enjoyed watching you both grow up. Love you both and your families and if we can do anything , please let us know. “ So saddened to see this news about Shirley. We are from the Piney Chapel community and I worked at Athens State University, so acquainted with Shirley for many years. She was a beautiful, sweet and hard working lady. Steve and Jamie, you may remember playing ball with our sons, Newton and Franklin. May God give you strength, comfort and peace during this difficult time.
