“ Nanny was a person that I only knew for a short time, but oh how I loved that lady. I would stop by and she would show me her flowers. We would walk around her yard oohing and awing. She was always laughing and so proud of her green thumb. It will no longer be the same knowing that she isn't in that cute little house that I pass by every day on my way home. I will truly miss her. God Bless you all.
