*Tina and Family,
Our Thoughts Are With You
The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers in the land.
The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains.
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.*

“ Tina and the Lewis Family: it goes without saying, the impact Stacy had on your lives and everyone he touched. The stories you shared, Tina were endearing and fun, sprinkled with the need for speed ;o). We don't chose our family, but we chose who we want to marry-and he chose you. The memories that you have, may it overflow in your heart, the silly times, the thoughtful times, the laughter and the privlidge of the love you shared.

And to the Lewis Family & dear friends: Life has stopped for you as well, you were blessed to have him as your son and friend. May your pain be overshadowed with the memories of the light he would shine. May God hold you all up during this time of need, and may you remember He gave Stacy to you, you were fortunate he was yours.

“ On behalf of The Lewis Family and his Fiancé Tina, I would like to express my deepest sympathy. I lived downstairs from Stacy and he was a joy to be around. He was the sweetest, kindest and caring person I have ever met. From showing my nieces and nephews how his hydraulics worked on the red truck to racing the motor on one of many cars he had. Stacy was a neighbor and friend that everyone would love to have. He is going to be truly missed. I know the days ahead won't be easy, but look to God for comfort, strength, healing, and understanding.
