“ Just sorry I can't be there today for the memorial service. My Auntie Sybil was an amazing woman with a huge heart and a great sense of humor. When we visited the US from Zimbabwe, her home was our home away from home, and when I was in college in the US, she always made me welcome just as part of the family whenever I could be there in Athens. Her sense of humor was never far from the surface. When I came to the US as a 19 year old college student wearing a beard and long hair for Athens at the time (1970), I walked into the store and Auntie Sybil came over and gave me a big hug - and then was really tickled by the look of shocked horror she saw on the face of a preacher behind us as she hugged this "hippie." She will be sorely missed by all who knew her and loved her.

“ Sybil was my first boss. I was just a green, shy girl. She took me under her wing and helped me in so many ways. I wouldn't have been able to go to college without her help. I learned so much from her and I admired her so much. After marrying we lived across the street . She encouraged me and took time to reassure me even she a large family herself. She will be missed by all who knew her, especially Nancy, Paul, Benjamin, Henry, and Robrt. My love and sympathy to all. Jeannie Binkley Thornton.
