“Tammy had a servant's heart. She found ways to help many people. I have two African violets and a jade plant she gave to me. We loved to talk about plants together. Even though she was very quiet, she had a wonderful sense of humor. I enjoyed her friendship and her stories about her children, Rio, and her dogs. Her faith was strong and we had many conversations about our common love of God and our Savior Jesus Christ. I have been blessed to have Tammy as a friend and coworker. I will miss her texts, calls and fudge.
