“ Tom My Love Today Is a Sad Sunday. I want to say Thanks for sharing our Faith. Thanks for Serving our Country and Thank you for Love and Support of me always. Maggie, Glen and me shared A Sad Christmas without you, it was the first in a lot of years. She sends her love. Maggie said Mimi Tom fills up a room with love and laughter. The Room feels so empty. You are the Love of My Life, My dearest friend. I will miss you Forever, and Celebrate your Love Forever.

“ Dear Becky our hearts are broken. We go back to when he and my Tom worked together at the Lexington Bluegrass Army Depot then we all got moved to AL. I have many fond memories of Tom, most involve eating! I pray that you will find peace and comfort in the coming days knowing that Tom is no longer in pain and walking on streets of gold. If we can do anything, please let me know s know.
