“ To the family: Coping with the death of a loved one is never easy, but we have the assurance from Our Heavenly Father that he will comfort us in all our tribulations. (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Death was never a part of the Creator's purpose for mankind, so he has furnished a guarantee by means of his Son, Christ Jesus, that we will see our loved ones again. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28) I pray that you may draw comfort from His Words.

“ Tommy will be missed by many. He was a great person. His troubles are over now. Everytime we were there to see him he had that smile on that face as we talked about the trucks on the wall. We loved you Tommy but God loved you best. Cordy, if you need us for anything you know where to find us. Love Always! Walter and Stella

“ A few weeks ago my grandson, David, and I dropped in to see Tommy. his room was filled with trucks that would wooo any little boy's heart.As I explain to David the 'toys' in Tommy's room, I could see in Tommy's eyes the desire to share the many stories behind each 'toy'. Tommy ...rest my friend. Roy & Gwen
