“ Larry - Your below post is right - Tom was certainly an "easy guy to like"; and well liked he was. Our Class of '73 continues to painfully fade away as we see classmates go before us. Tom you said good-bye way too soon. Condolences to your family for this hard loss.

“ Tom and I played football together in High School, both of us were defensive backs, so we were together a lot during that time. He was a great guy. Everyone liked Tom, he was one of those people; easy to like. We did not stay in touch after high school, but I have fond memories of him and his brother Jerry from high school football. It's sad to say goodbye to another classmate. As we all know: Cherish our time together. Rest in Peace my friend.
