“ I only lived near Athens for a couple of years but have many good memories of my cousin, Tim. He was not a quitter! One example of this was when we went on a Snipe hunt at Pleasant Grove. Tim stayed in the ditch holding his T-shirt open until Jim and I decided we needed to find him! The other one was when Granddaddy was building his house in Athens. We were on the roof nailing shingles and Tim was using his left hand to hammer. Granddaddy chided him about that. When Tim showed him the blister on his right hand, the old man responded with tears and an apology! This trait stayed with him and I am sure blessed all who knew and loved Tim.

“ Tim was my big brother; he left me so many wonderful memories. He & I rode our bikes to Athens Elementary and as dogs ran toward us on our bikes, he was a hero chasing them away. He liked our cocker spaniel and the hunting dog puppies at our Carter grandparents. I love him. He'll be in my heart forever.
