“ Travis was a kind and gentle soul. He gave so much of his life so that we could all have the freedom to sit down with our families and enjoy dinners and Thanksgiving's like we're about to share. He was a great Veteran in every sense of the word, yet he was quiet, never complained or ask why me. He used to call just to talk and I realize how much I've missed those calls. He and Mary Ann have been in our lives for as long as we remember sweet Bro. and Mrs. Alvin Holt marrying us in 1979. We have enjoyed watching him with his children and sweet Grandchildren. It was a joy to watch Travis pick his guitar that he enjoyed so much. Our prayers are with sweet Mary Ann and all the family. No more suffering and no more pain dear brother in Heaven where all will be made new.
