“ So very sorry to read of the tragic accident and loss of your Trevor I know there are no words to ease the pain you must be feeling now. There is something I would like to share with you from the Bible. Please read Luke 7:11-22.
Our Creator wants us to live and Jesus has great compassion for those who have lost someone to death, He would never take someone we love but will certainly give your loved one back to you. John 5:28,29 speaks of a resurrection of all those in Gods memory and Psalm 37:29 says that righteous people will live on earth forever. These passages are very encouraging.

“ I met Trevor last month as he helped our son-in-law, Haven, install a shower for Grandma Davis. He was such a quiet, polite young man. I had the opportunity to share a lunchtime meal with Haven, my grandson Davis and Trevor at the Sportsman's Park. I was impressed that Trevor brought his own lunch and didn't give in to the temptation to have something from the Park's Deli. I knew Trevor was self-disciplined (a trait not seen much these days). Trevor worked steadily and with such a good attitude.

When I heard he was fatally injured, my heart sank with sadness. But on Sunday, when I heard that Trevor had been baptized just a short time ago, I was so relieved to know Trevor is now in heaven and he'll never experience the trials and temptations that is common to mankind.

May God give you peace and comfort as you grieve for the loss of your son.

Sincerely,
Peggy Davis

“ Psalm 34:18 says "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." and I believe that very deeply. Trevor impacted my life by opening my eyes to the simplicity of life, and how to truly love everyone. I will always remember Trevor with a smile, because that's all he ever did and I am so glad that I had this short time to know him. My heart is with you and I send you love, prayers, and fond memories.
