“ Dear Brother, It seems as though, you were in such a hurry to get to Heaven, that as your spirit zoomed upwards, you caused a sonic wave to side-swipe the moon. That resulted in the moon being knocked slightly off course & now. It's shadow is projected to cause a solar eclilse for next Mon & pass near Athens & from coast to coast. NASA has not given you credit yet, but, we know! Ha! Ha! Love & miss you so. . Beverly
