“ Doug was our friend, he was part of our family. My dad Pappa Joe Sexton saw potential in Doug as a very young green kid and made him one of his boys. Doug was there for every part of our lives, he helped me move, he fixed everything that broke. Doug was the first person I thought of when anything went wrong. God took him because something in heaven needs fixing. I know my daddy is so happy to have him by his side again but our hearts are broken because we will miss him so much. He lived my children and my grandchild as his own. God made Doug in his own image and I was blessed to call him my friend.
