“ Wanda was first a great person. I have not seen her for many years, thought of her often and followed the family on Facebook. When both of us worked at the Louisville (KY) Planning Commission back in the 1970's I dictated a letter to her to the Archbishop of Louisville concerning a zoning issue. It was addressing him as a owner of property in KY as a "corporate sole" (single owner), but I didn't notice she typed it to a corporate "soul"and sent it off to him. I later heard from the Archbishop and he got a real kick out of it saying maybe KY law should be changed to note his position. Wanda told me that it made perfect sense to her that a Archbishop would be a "soul" and not a "sole" We all got a good laugh out of it. Her boiled peanuts, ugh. She tried to get me to like them many times, but never could. I know the Family will miss her dearly, but you have all the great memories of her that will last many years. My deepest condolences to you Bob and all the Family. Charlie Davis, Louisville, KY

“ Where to start? All the Pinochle Games, Bringing home Beth's cat from Michigan, the hours spent at the lake and on the lake. The time we went Trick or Treating with a drink glass and had more fun than the kids. The Christmas Eve Bill & Trudy and you all and us spent Christmas Eve drinking Egg Nog you had made and Bill missing Christmas because of the Egg Nog! You all were the first to buy at the lake and then Kendal & I and the Gwen & Rosie. What fun we had with the pontoons and your speed boat. I remember you were the first to get up on the ski board to water ski. Being on Rosie's boat in the middle of the worst thunderstorm I've ever seen and you, Gwen and I covered up with towels afraid to look at the lightening! All the fun we had together, and the friendship of our daughters, Beth & Linda . So many memories of the wonderful times, and how I hated to see you all leave when you moved to Alabama. Rest in peace lovely lady. Your friends, Janet & Kendal
