“ I am so very sorry to learn of Wendell's passing. I have known him since the 1980's and the old Huddle House days. He was always one of my favorite people and I loved talking to him. His sense of humor was one of a kind and no one will ever come close to being as wonderful as he was. My thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you during this great time of loss.

“ I am Jo's mother-in-law in North Dakota. I met Wendell while visiting Sally. He was a man with a unique sense of humor. He is now at peace and free of pain. My sincere condolences to Amanda and his extended family. I lost my father on March 2nd so I feel your pain. I also loved and miss Sally very much.
