“ Wendy Wendy Wendy.. I love you pretty girl! I wasn't ready for you to go! I hope you and Jesus are walking hand by hand. How can I forget the times we had from you teaching me how to put on make-up to playing softball together! Going to school together.. Wild, crazy, random trips in the Saturn! You are gone but not forgotten! I love you and I will see your beautiful face again one day!

“ I never knew Wendy however i wanna say how sorry i am that this type of tragedy has happened. i will be keeping the children of wendy as well as her family in my prayers. I have read about this and watched it on the news. I don't know what all happened but from the looks of it this person that did this should be behind bars for the rest of his life it's sad knowing that we have people like this walking our streets today. again i'm sorry for your loss may God be with you all during this time of grieving.
