“ My memory would be hanging out in the garage and watching him paint a car and me checking it out to Make sure there was no hiccups lol ..laughing and cutting up at each other ..papa bill was one heck of a body man and paint man , he loved loved what he done .. he enjoyed it very much..also I loved when I'd see him and jersey together doing something she loved .. he loved being in the garage with papa..she would pick up a DA and go to town lol .. so many more memories I could share .. Bill you was a great man .always playing jokes and laughing even When you hurt on a bad day . We had a lot of good times over the 28 years we all shared together. Your definitely missed and oh so loved.. thank you for loving jersey and myself no different way but blood...you never checked up at wanting to always make that little girl smile your jer jer .. our hearts wasn't ready but your wings were , till we see each other again , watch over my brothers and myself and your beautiful grand babies and sweet bay Monroe..and I know you already are making sure momma is ok .. she's gonna need you as her guardian angel.. I know you both loved each oh so much .. always in our hearts ❤️ your daughter Amy jo
