“ I met Yvonne when I moved to Peachtree City. Soon I felt like I had known her forever, my best friend. She made me laugh, opened her heart and home to me when I needed help. I called her Angel and I recall her visiting Nashville and taking this perfect picture. She is incredibly kind, warm hearted, and generous. We would talk and text countless days and have fun lunches. Yvonne, Angel Girl, who shared our faith in Christ together, soothing a hurting heart or imparting wisdom, I miss you beyond words. I remember you dog sitting and how we laughed how this little dog adored her and slept in her bed. I had the chance to meet Dawn who has so many of you in her. Yvonne I love you forever. Will see you in Heaven. Forever Friend, Sandy Caylor.

“ Yvonne, Angel Girl as I called you, your pure heart, gentleness and compassion. I still miss my best friend and will always until I see you in Heaven. Your wisdom and strength and great concern has changed my life. Oh, to talk about everything to you and laugh at the silliest things. There is that ache in my . You kindly and fervently prayed for your sweet husband, Charles, Dawn, who is so smart and loving and your dear son Adam who you also deeply loved. Yvonne, I love my best forever  .
